iUniverse, Inc. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 294 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.2in. x 1.2in. Troubled teenager Walter Tyrell loves fire, but he knows as well as anyone else that playing with it will only get you burned. Still, he cannot control himself from grabbing some gasoline and a book of matches and setting off into the night. But the symbol he chooses to burn into the football field is as controversial as the arson itself. Walter has gone too far this time, and hes about to take everyone in his life including his sister Janice down with him. High school teacher Robert Barkin thinks hes put the past behind him. But when former classmate Janice Tyrell reenters his life, she shakes his carefully constructed world. Trying to protect her brother Walter from the schools wrath, Jan implicates Robert in an old, unresolved crime and confronts him with the long-buried truth. She plots to worm her way into his life, first as his daughters babysitter and then as the lady of the house. Roberts wife has recently been diagnosed with breast cancer, and hes trying desperately to care for his family and be a good teacher to his students. But Janice has a different plan for Robert. Now he is surrounded by seduction, deceit, and the licking flames of Walters fire. Can Robert find a way out of this disaster, or will he be devoured by it too This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
