Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Republic at Peace: A Discourse Delivered on the Occasion of the National Fast, June 1st, 1865, in the Church of the Redeemer, Cincinnati, Ohio Not two months have elapsed since the death of Abraham Lincoln; but the news has gone round the world, and already has every civilized nation uttered its voice of sorrow and appreciation. Never in history has there been a verdict to the excellence of one man so prompt and so unanimous. From St. Petersburg to San Francisco, the head of every great nation has spoken, and all have repeated the same thing - that in the sudden fall of Abraham Lincoln, the cause of good government, public and private virtue, and human advancement, has met a bereavement that can only be explained by a gracious Providence. No man of any reputation in any civilized land has dared, even if he has desired, to disparage the character and services of the good President so suddenly removed from his lofty position. In the loyal States of the Republic, his bitterest political and...
