Are you a well known legal voter in the sixth ward? Answer. Yes, sir. Question. Which of your acquaintances, on the 2d of November, 1859, after persistent efforts to vote, failed to do so; state what efforts they made, as observed by you? Answer. I do not know of any; I did not stay long; I walked over, put in my ballot, going from my place of business, on Baltimore Street, near Calvert, stopping at the tenth ward polls on my way; reached the sixth ward polls, deposited my ballot, and came immediately away. Question. At the time you were at the sixth ward polls, was not the same a fair, free, and open poll, so far as you could judge? Answer. The poll was open, I mean the passage way; plenty of room; there was no disturbance; there was no voting going on. Question. At what hour did you vote? Answer. It was about quarter after eleven o clock. Question. Please state, as near as you can, the number of what you supposed to have been illegal ballots cast in the tenth ward whilst you were there as a spectator. Answer. I suppose about eight. Examination in chief resumed. Question. Did the rough, who escorted you up to the window, offer to do so? Answer. When I first...
