This committee will report at the next meeting of the Board, which occurs late in June. President Read has recovered from his protracted, and at one time dangerous, illness. Kansas.--The schools in the cities and towns are generally in good condition, and will compare favorably with similar schools in other states; but in the matter of country or district schools, Kansas is certainly in advance of many of her sister states. We account for this in the following facts: 1st. The teachers are qualified for the work, about one-fourth having received instruction for not less than a year in Normal Schools, and a majority of the remainder in County Normal Institutes, held during the summer months. 2d. Teachers are better paid. 3d. There is more of a professional corps cTesprit among them than we have seen elsewhere. 4th. The people, as well as the teachers, are enthusiastic, almost romantic, in their attachment to public schools, and faith in the excellence of their educational privileges. All work with a common purpose, for the accomplishment of their ideal. State Superintendent Mccarty is holding a series of Judicial District Institutes, which are well attended. The first, at Fort Scott, had sixty teachers present. This city has a school building, nearly completed, which will cost about $60,000. It has one feature that is most commendable: two large play-rooms are fitted up in the basement for use in inclement weather. The county has 75 districts, all of which are provided...
