So this is the famous Budapest, is it, the twin cities of the blue Danube we ve been hearing so much about? Huh! doesn t strike me as so very much of a wonderful place. When you come to think of it, little old New York and Brooklyn can beat it all hollow so far as bustle and business go; even Chicago would run it a hot race. Now that s just like you, George Rollins, always ready to find fault, and throw cold water on everything. No wonder they ve called you Doubting George this long time back. There s always a flaw somewhere, you believe, and so you look for it right along. Between you and me, Buster, I don t think he ever will be cured of that nasty habit. Why can t he see the bright side of things once in a while, and be an optimist, like our chum and commodore, Jack Stormways? Oh, you ought to know by this time, Josh, a leopard can t change its spots. I reckon our friend George here has spasms of reform once in just so often; but his weakness is ground in, and his resolves collapse, so he goes back to his old ways again. You don t say, Buster? Kindly take pity on my ignorance and tell me what there is so wonderful about this old Hungarian capital perched on the banks of the Danube and joined by bridges? I m willing to have the scales taken from my eyes. Oh, well, first there s the river itself, not dirty water like most of our streams over in the States, but clear, and...
