THE ARMAGEDDON DOMINO

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In 2014 an ongoing series of large earthquakes has rocked California, as well as the nerves of the Parsons family, who flee to their aunt s house in Texas for safety. Getting through the mayhem and buckling roads, they find themselves in an overnight shelter. The next morning, California suffers an 11.5, causing a major land shift in California, which sets off a domino of events throughout the world. The quake causes a mega-tsunami to cross the Pacific, wreaking havoc on the Asian coastline. As the world is busy trying to respond, Iran seizes the disasters opportunity to launch their assault on the American and Israeli interests. This sets off a nuclear conflict and the domino of Armageddon is underway. What will the Parsons do to try and survive the impending doom that faces them as the nuclear winter and Chinese bio toxins from their destroyed research facility spread around the world? They do survive, into a world that God has decided to recreate into a post-apocalyptic world. The chosen survivors are delighted to see what God does to fix things, but there s a few problems. The survivors have brought with them their baggage from their former lives. How will they (and God) resolve their personality issues? Could they be taught to live together in harmony? And how can they and God undo the world that was? The futuristic ending presents a twist on what conventional theories postulate on the future of the planet. One cannot help but wonder how things might be like, both at the time of the end, and after. Many years ago, my wife and I lost our five year old...
