Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Trails, Vol. 1: December 1920 During February and March of the year 1913, a San Francisco newspaper published a series of articles on outdoor recreation. Upon invitation of the writer of the articles a few people met Sunday mornings for walking trips in the San Francisco bay region. The following month a club was formed under the name of the newspaper in which the articles appeared. Officers were elected, a constitution and by-laws adopted, and arrangements made for printing a schedule of weekly trips. At the annual meeting in April, 1914, a reorganization was effected. All connections with the newspaper organization were severed, and the present name The California Alpine Club selected. A pin, a pennant and a club emblem an Indian arrowhead bearing the initials C. A. C. - were adopted. Later in the month the members approved a constitution and by-laws, which provided for quarterly and annual meetings for the transaction of club business. During the summer of 1915, increased membership made necessary more frequent meetings. The club, having outgrown its form of...
