Excerpt: .of these suggestions, that will guide the person to good health and long life, the word persistence, because where they are needed the most they will require more constant application. The thought for us to grasp in this connection is that we can control the vital force by an effort of the will if we persist, and that we can overcome the unconscious tension upon the muscles by sending the devitalizing thought to the muscles not in use, until it becomes a habit that will not require our attention. There is more of health in the devitalized muscle than in the hard, knotty muscle of the trained athlete. The power of alternately contracting and wholly relaxing the muscles is the condition that will give greater endurance, greater precision of movement, and greater individuality of expression in their motion, so that the getting possession of the muscular system will enable persons to live within their whole body, being conscious of their power over every part of it. The body will then become a pliant instrument in the possession of its owner. Then when the strain comes he can send the whole strength of his body to the part requiring sustenance by the magical power of his will, and the result will more than compensate him for the effort required in learning how to devitalize his muscles, and the getting possession of his body. Relaxing Or Surrendering The Muscles. The fact that the ligaments about the...
