

Authors Out Here: Fitzgerald, West, Parker, and Schulberg in Hollywood (Hardback)

By Tom Cerasulo

University of South Carolina Press, United States, 2010.

Hardback. Book Condition: New. Revised.. 231 x 157 mm.

Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a bold reevaluation of the screen-writing years of a quartet of iconic writers often at odds with the film industry. F. Scott Fitzgerald, Nathanael West, Dorothy Parker, and Budd Schulberg exercised as much of an impact on Hollywood as it had on them during their respective screen-writing careers, Tom Cerasulo argues in Authors Out Here . Cerasulo explores the often tense relationship between these accomplished writers and the film industry in which they were immersed and finds that this marriage of talent and power was mutually beneficial if not always happy. Combining film studies with literary analysis, this alternative view of the creative negotiations between representative writers and the studio system advances our understanding of the meaning of authorship in the first half of the twentieth century. Cerasulo s quartet of subjects wrote for and about the burgeoning film industry during the halcyon days of the studio era. Popular accounts of this period characterize the Hollywood careers of these writers as motivated by revenge, mocking the studios and their hold over literary creativity. Cerasulo argues...
