Still the church is few in numbers, the members generally advanced in life; and unless God in rich mercy pour upon the people the Holy Spirit, and give it enlargement and strength, it cannot long continue. 22. Dedi iam. This interesting church, which has shown great enterprise in supporting religious ordinances, and has given liberally for the promulgation of the gospel in the world, is becoming painfully reduced by removals and deaths. But if it be true in this age that those who devise liberal things, by liberal things shall stand, there is certainly hope of their perpetuity. 23. Dexter has been supplied, the past year, half of the time by a member of the last senior class at Bangor. The F. W. Baptist brethren meet with them, and have supplied the pulpit...
